

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS' DINNER FOR 2011- 2012

Fairfield Glade Rotarian Paul Wennermark performed his final act as Club President on Tuesday, June 28 by presiding over the Annual Installation of Officers' Dinner.

For the 2010-2011 year, the club was recognized by Rotary District 6780 as a STAR CLUB. STAR Club status is reached by supporting The Rotary Foundation's Annual Giving Fund at a level that averages one hundred dollars per club member. The club was also recognized as a GLOBE CLUB for supporting Rotary's International objectives through international projects, international service activities and promoting international awareness. Additionally, the Club was awarded the PRESIDENTIAL CITATION for demonstrating Rotary's commitment to fellowship and service. The Club also received the DISTRICT GOVERNOR'S CITATION for an outstanding commitment to furthering the ideals of Rotary. Lastly, Fairfield Glade Rotary was recognized as a Club Bulletin Award recipient of 1st PLACE FOR PRINTED BULLETIN. All those awards are a tribute to Paul's outstanding leadership.

It was a great Rotary year. Paul reflected upon the Club's Charity and Scholarship donations for the past year. Through fundraisers we were able to support, Hospice, Avalon, Kids On The Rise, Bread of Life, Ghana Well Project, District Foreign Exchange Students, Cumberland County Imagination Library, Stone Memorial High School Football, Advance Placement Tests, Interact Club and Rocket Club, Friends Women's Association Burundi, Art Circle Library, Junior LPGA Golf Tour, Crossville Firefighters, Cumberland County High School Baseball, Roane State School Supplies, Shelter Box USA, Cumberland Adult Reading Council, Cumberland County Playhouse, and Japan Recovery Fund. Scholarships were given to Tennessee College, Tennessee Tech Center and Cumberland County Rotary Scholarship Fund.

District Governor Elect Susan Elkins, Assistant District Governor and Fairfield Glade Rotarian Geoff Fine, Past Assistant District Governor Perk Thornton, and Foundation Chair Bill Collins then presented Paul Harris Fellowship awards to Wilson Pitt, Carol Campbell, Anna Stark and Mary Muckler. Pins were awarded in recognition of giving to the Rotary International Foundation.

To close out the evening, the Officers for the 2011-2012 term were installed. Paul passed on the torch to our new Club President, Kim Hartman.

Kim has been a member of the Fairfield Glade Rotary Club since 2008. She has worked as a financial advisor for over 20 years in both the entertainment and education industries. After obtaining her CPA license, she moved into private practice to work with individuals and small businesses. She is currently a CPA and partner in Hartman & Hillner CPAs. She and her husband Robert reside in Fairfield Glade.
